DO NOT FILE—INSTRUCTIONS PAGE

Disclaimer: The contents of this pro se Reply and instructions do not constitute legal advice. Foreclosure is a complicated area of law and it is strongly recommended that you contact a licensed NM attorney for advice about your specific case.

If you are not represented by an attorney you have the option of filing a Reply for yourself or pro se. You normally have 18 days after being served with the Response to file your Reply.

Filling out the Reply form:

1. Hand-write or type all of the information at the top of the first page of the Reply (called the caption) exactly as it is written on the first page of the Complaint, being sure to notate the appropriate court, plaintiff and defendant names, and case number.
2. Next write in your name as Defendant and on the lines provided state why you disagree with the Response.
3. When you have written all of the information in double check everything and then sign and print your name, include your mailing address, and telephone number.
4. There is a Certificate of Service prepared at the bottom of your Reply for your use. This certificate is a statement that you have mailed a copy of your Reply to the Plaintiff's attorney. You should be sure to sign and date the Certificate of Service and mail out the copy of the Reply on the date indicated on the certificate.
5. Make two copies of the pro se Reply; take the original and two copies to the district court clerk for filing. The Clerk will stamp all three documents. The Clerk will keep the original and return the two copies to you. Mail one of the copies to the attorney for the Plaintiff and keep one for your records.
6. When the Court schedules a hearing on the Motion, you should attend the hearing and explain your side of the case to the Judge.
